

Chapter 13

Scripture

Ego sum Alpha et Omega.

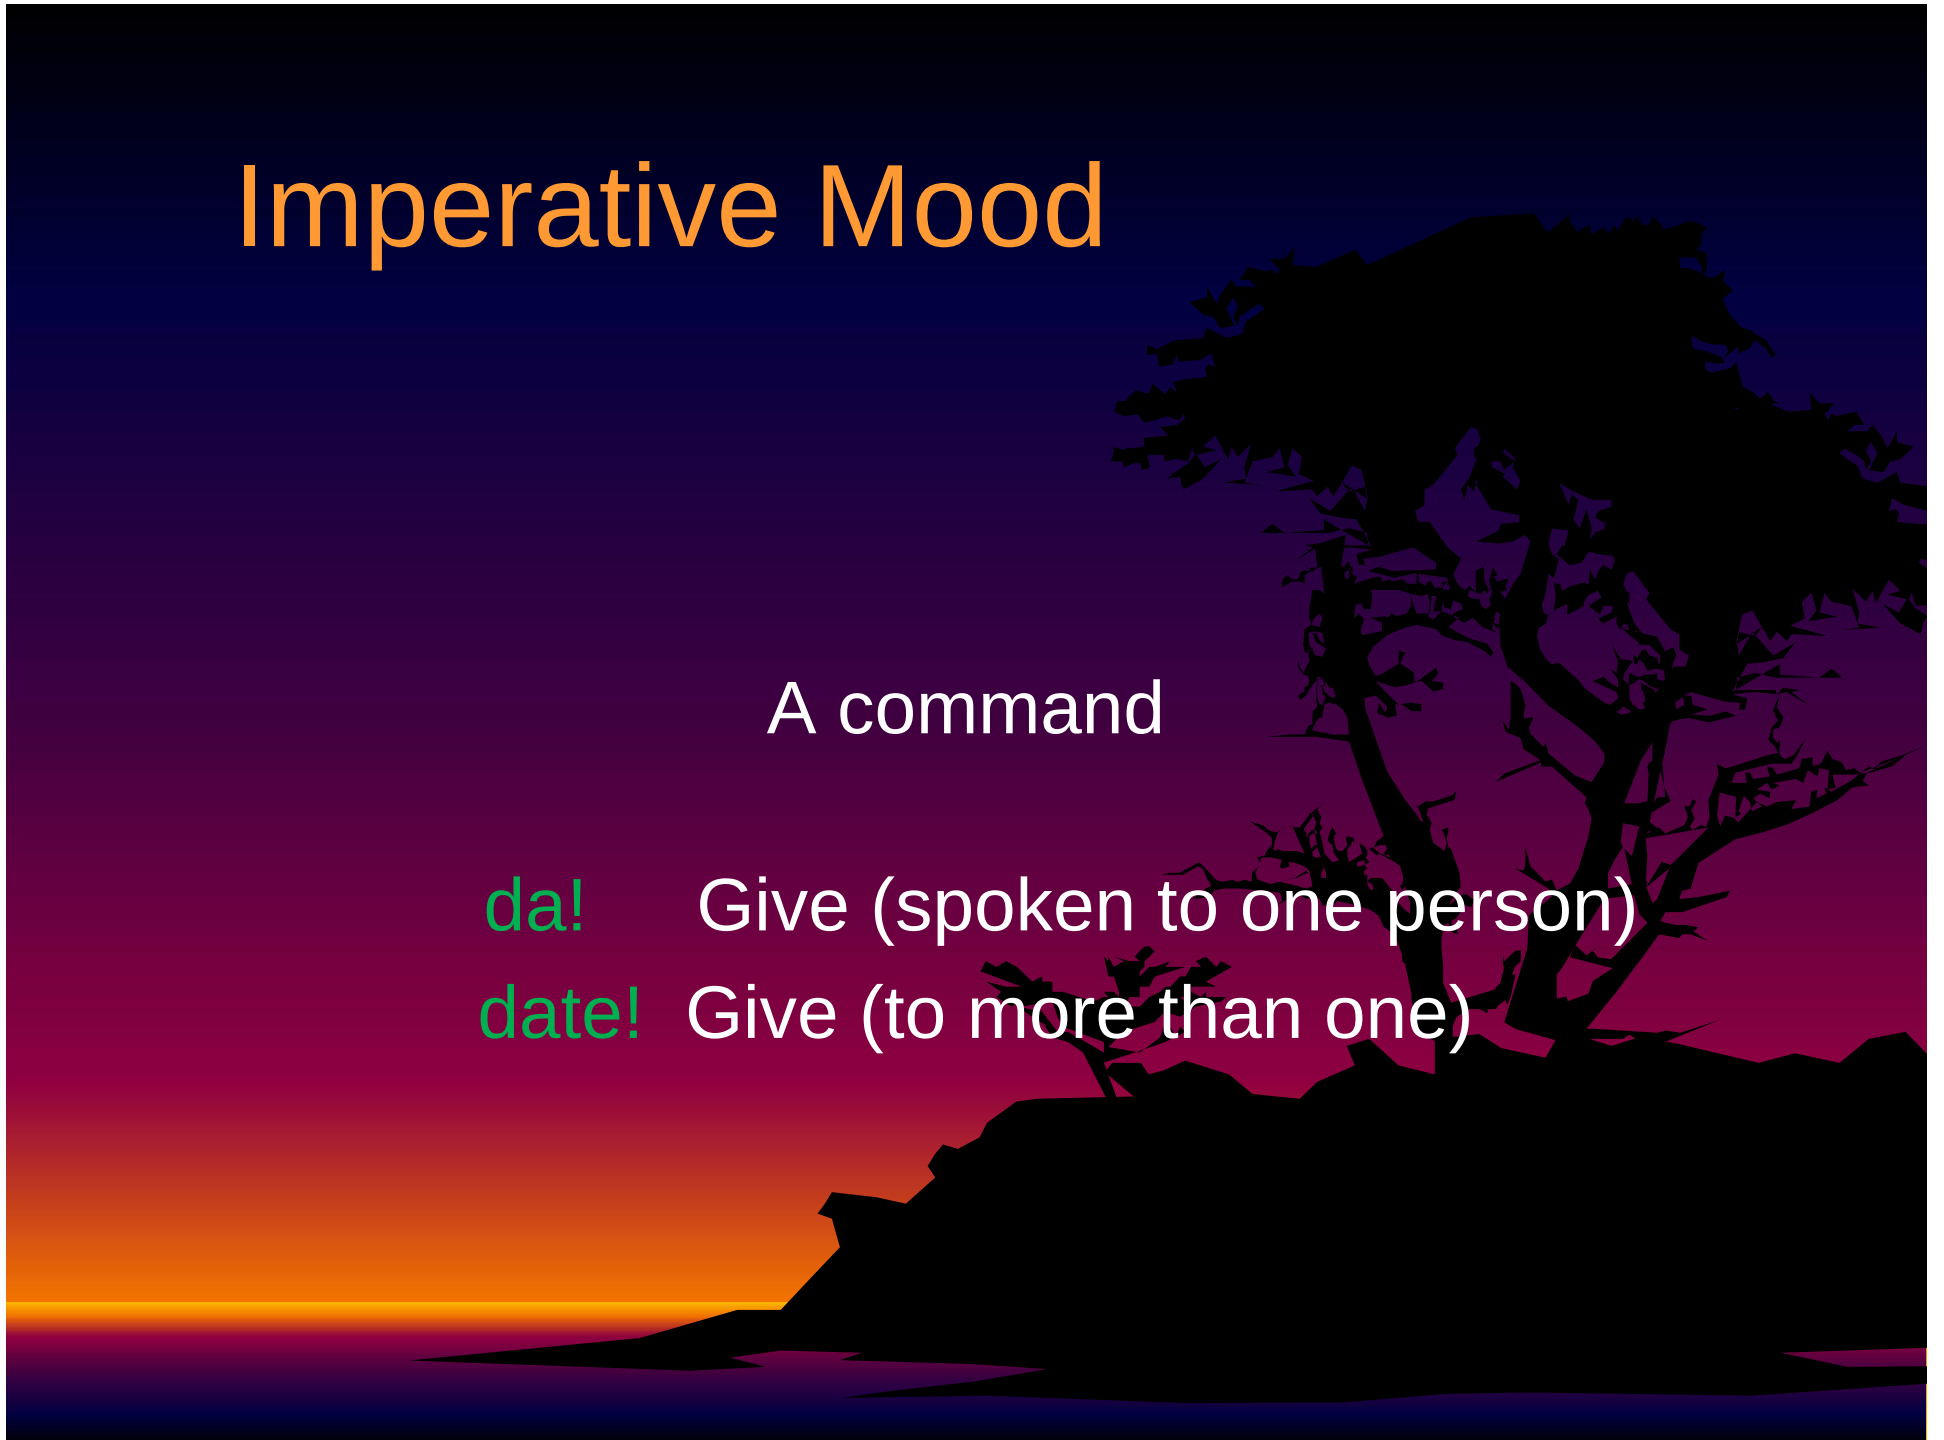

Imperative Mood

A command

da! Give (spoken to one person)

date! Give (to more than one)

Locative Case

Tells the location

We are at Rome....
Romae.

Vocative Case

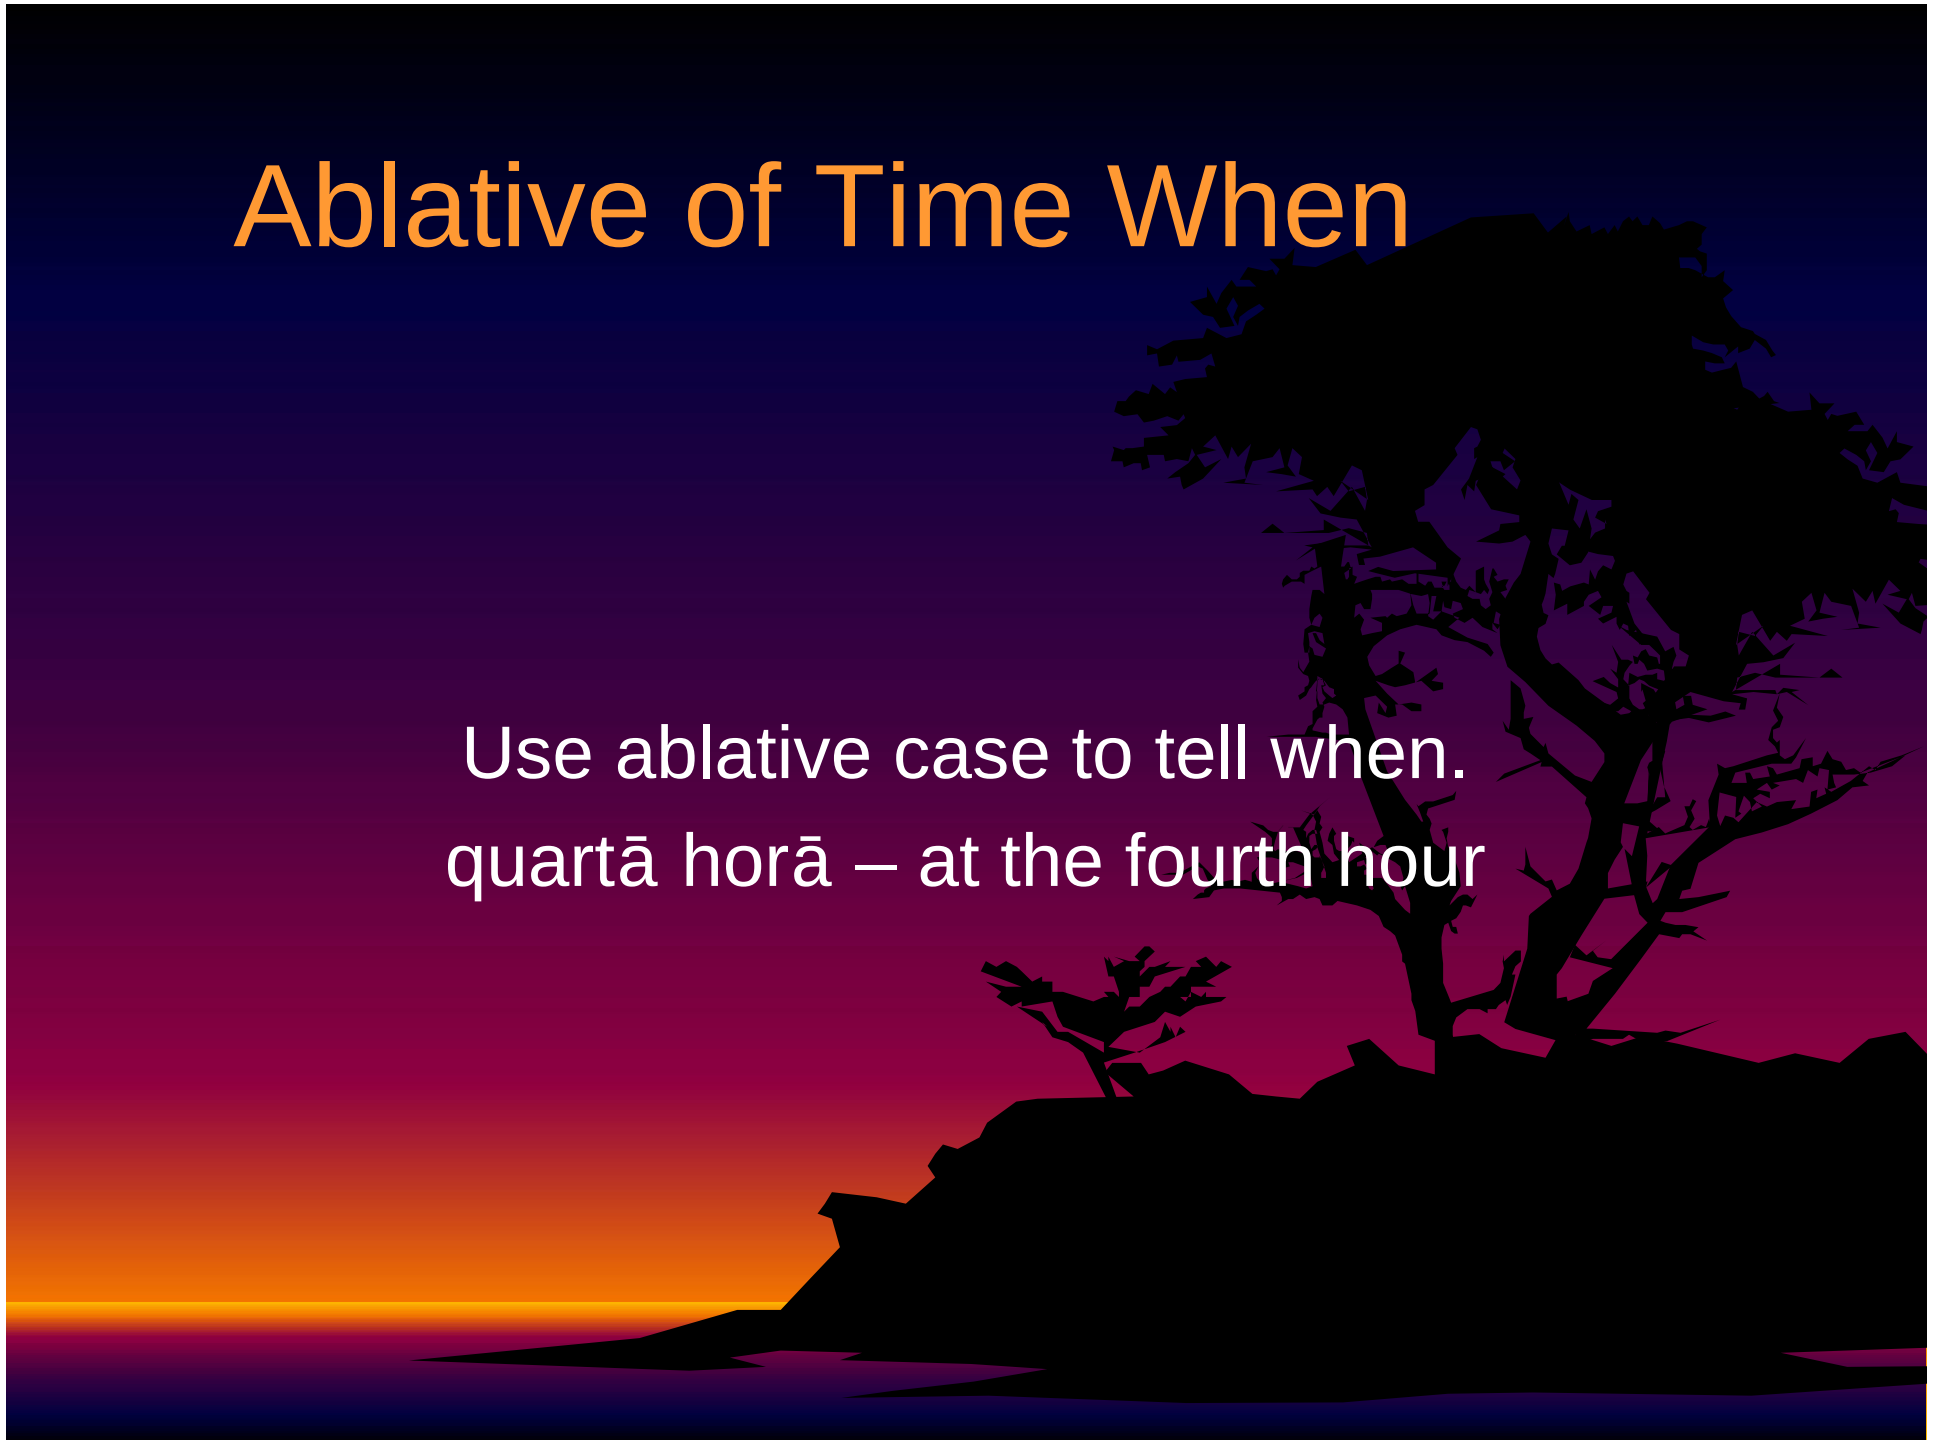

Michael, are you my friend?

Hillarie, are you studying?

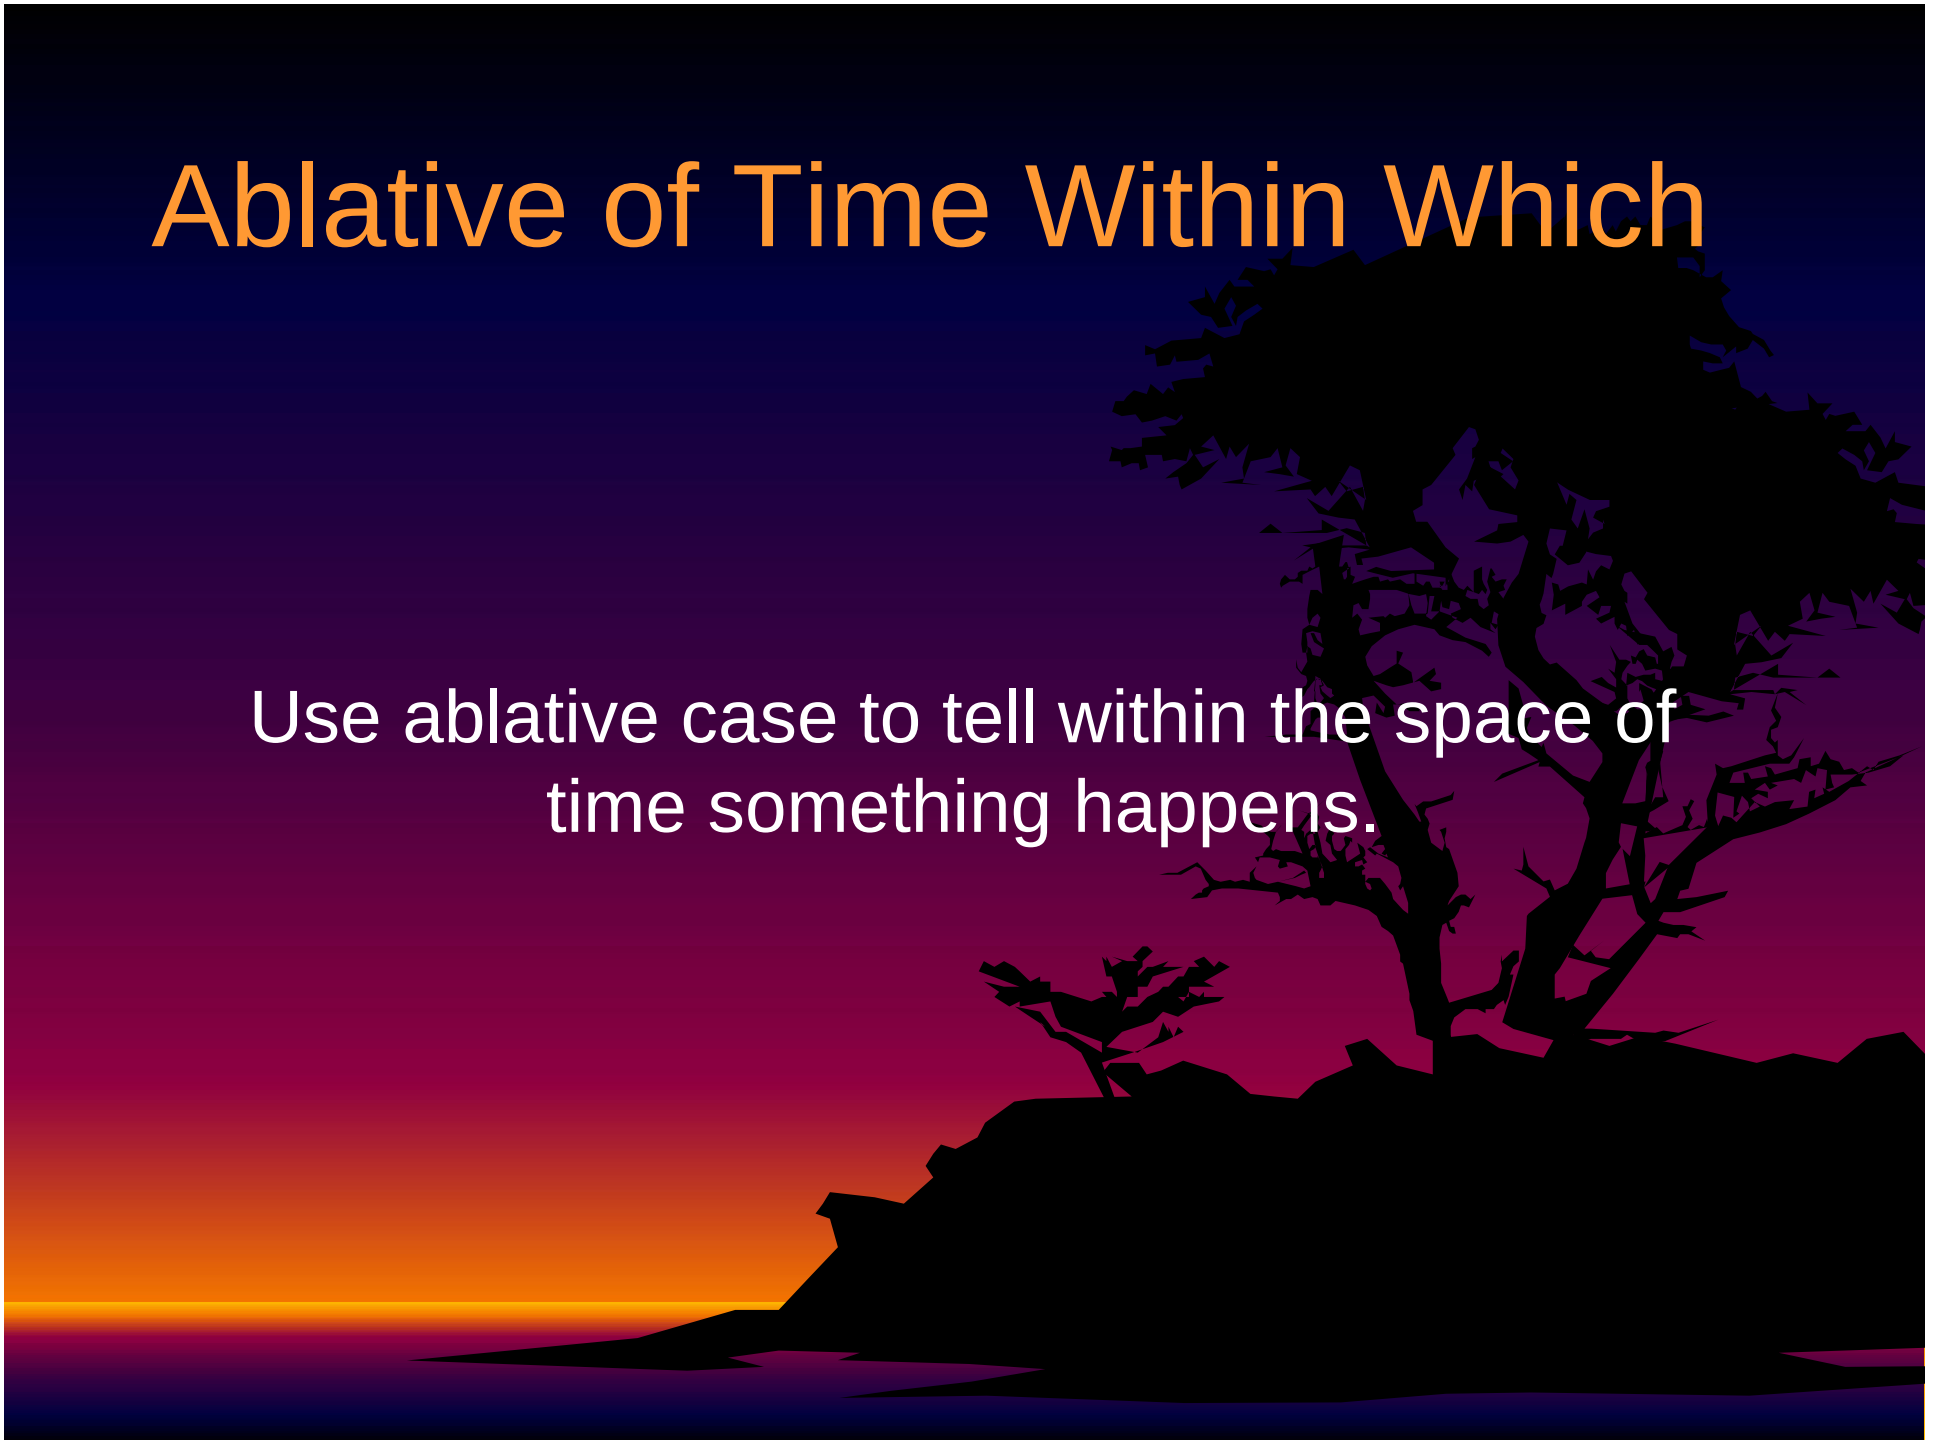

Ablative of Time When

Use ablative case to tell when.
quartā horā – at the fourth hour

Ablative of Time Within Which

Use ablative case to tell within the space of time something happens.

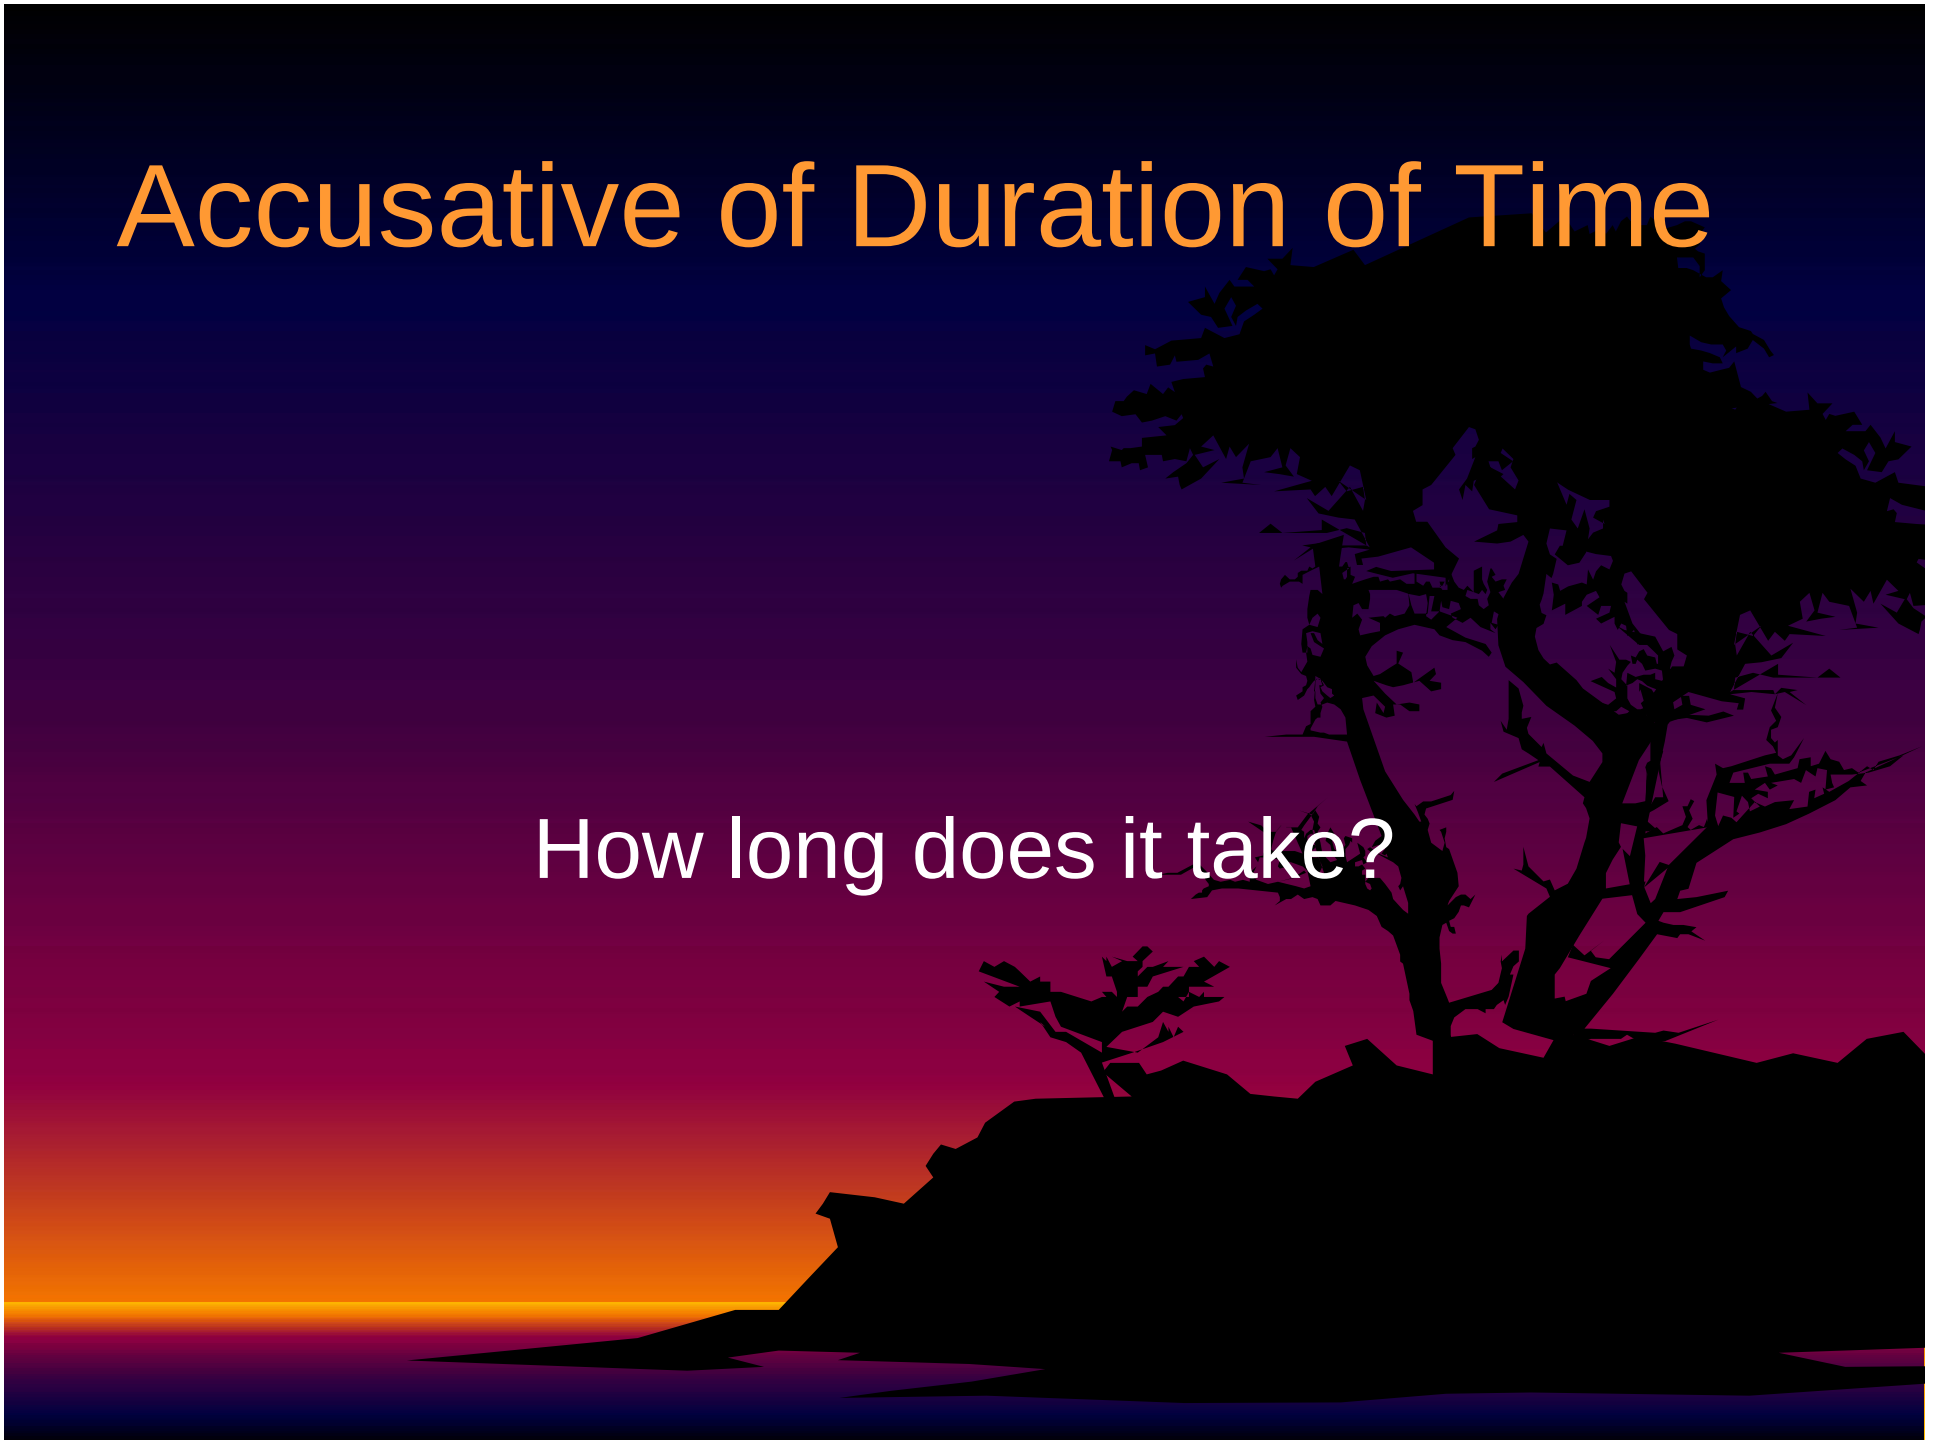

Ablative of Time Within Which

quattuor horis –
within four hours

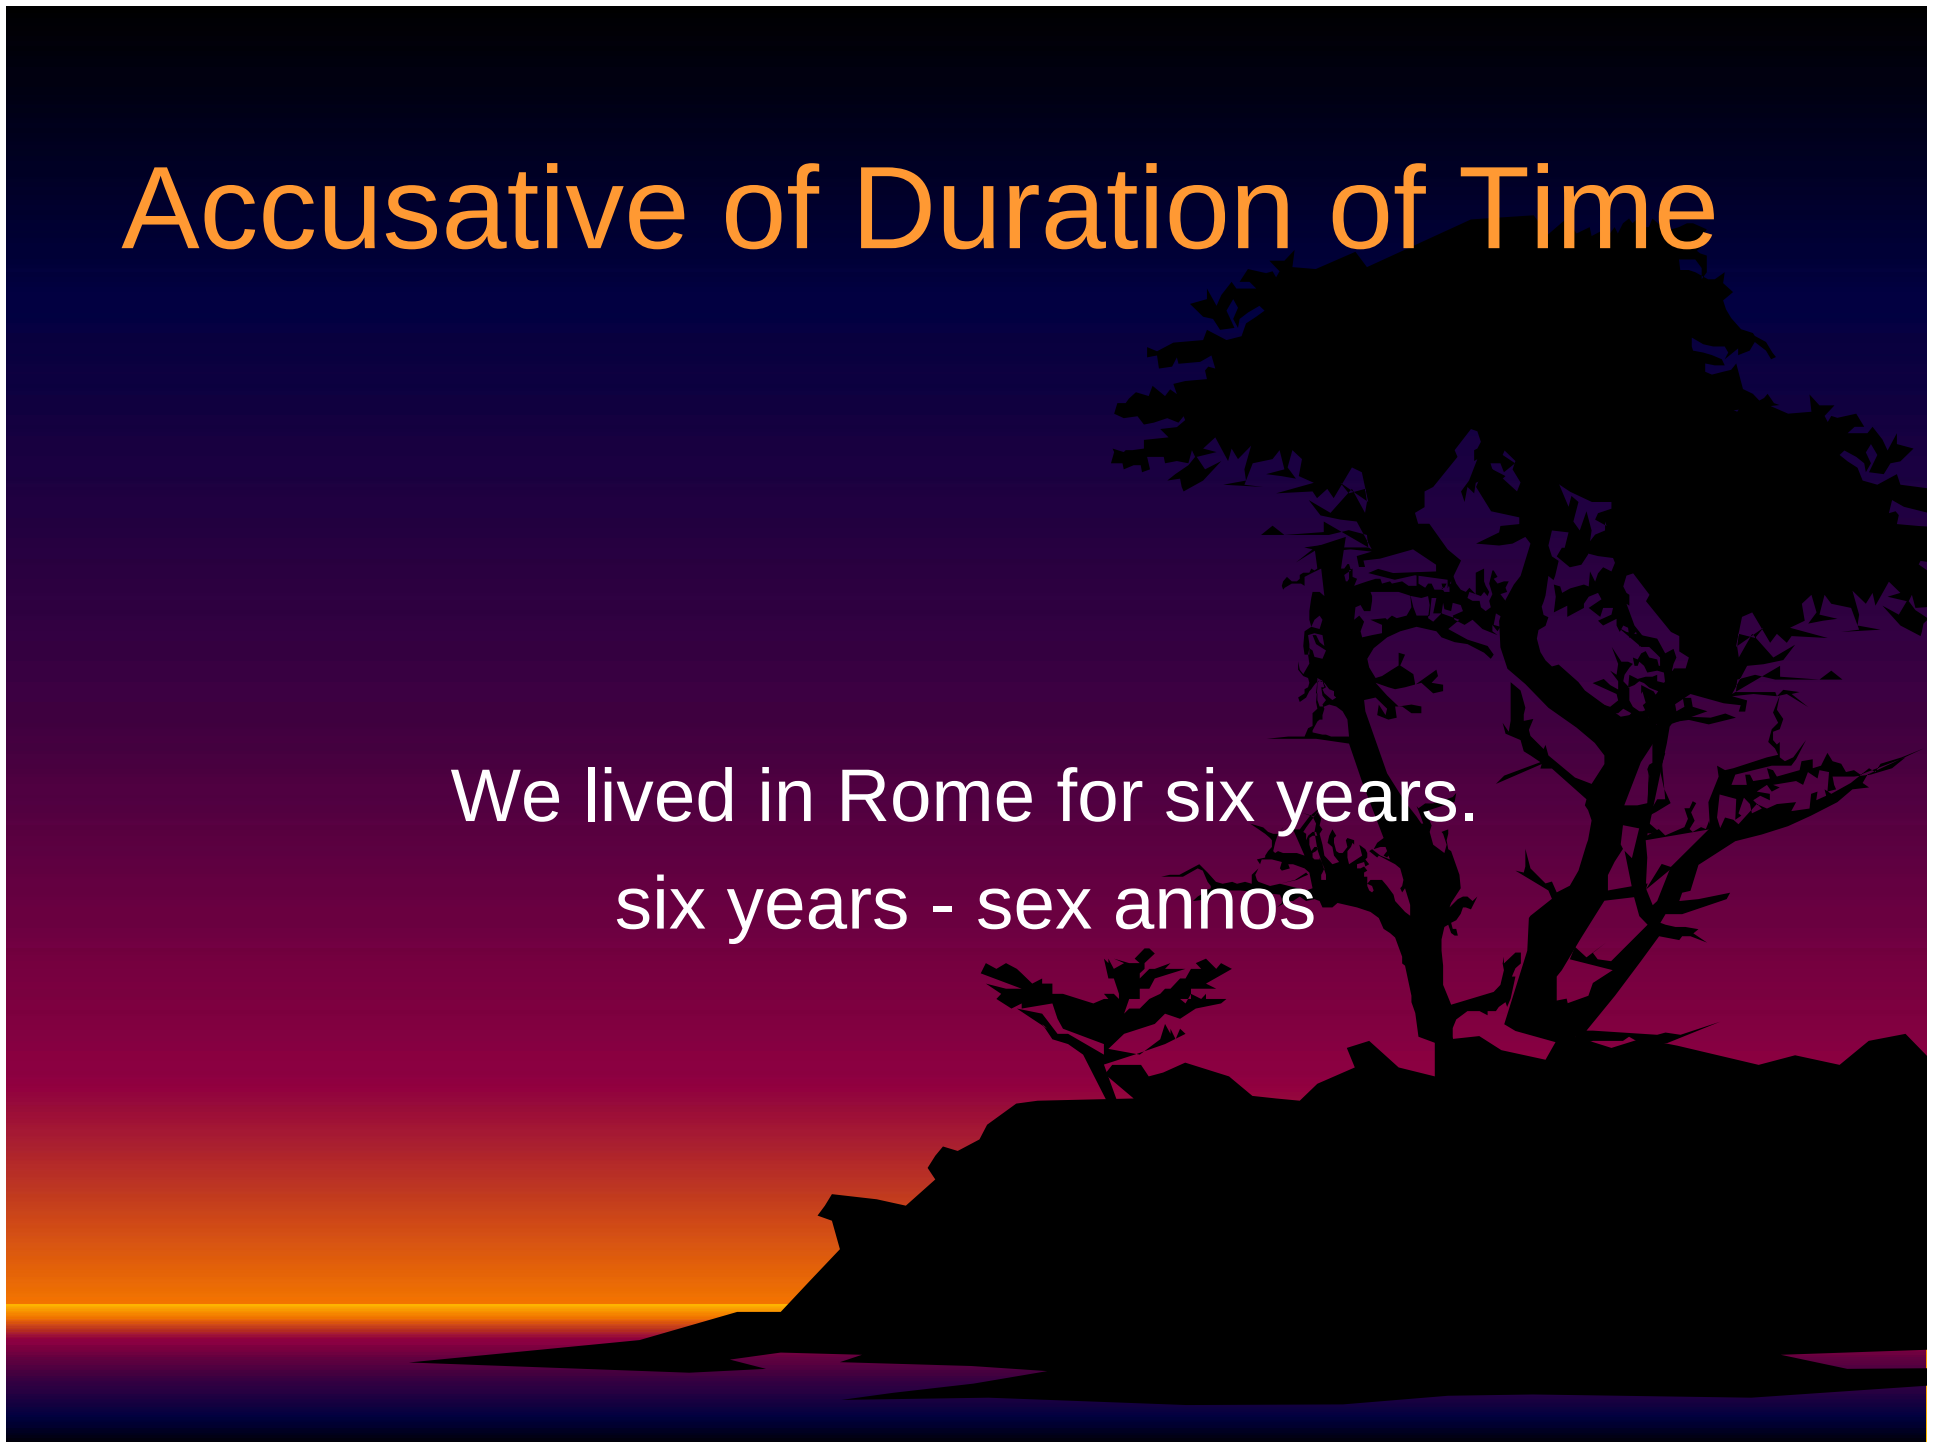

Accusative of Duration of Time

How long does it take?

Accusative of Duration of Time

We lived in Rome for six years.
six years - sex annos

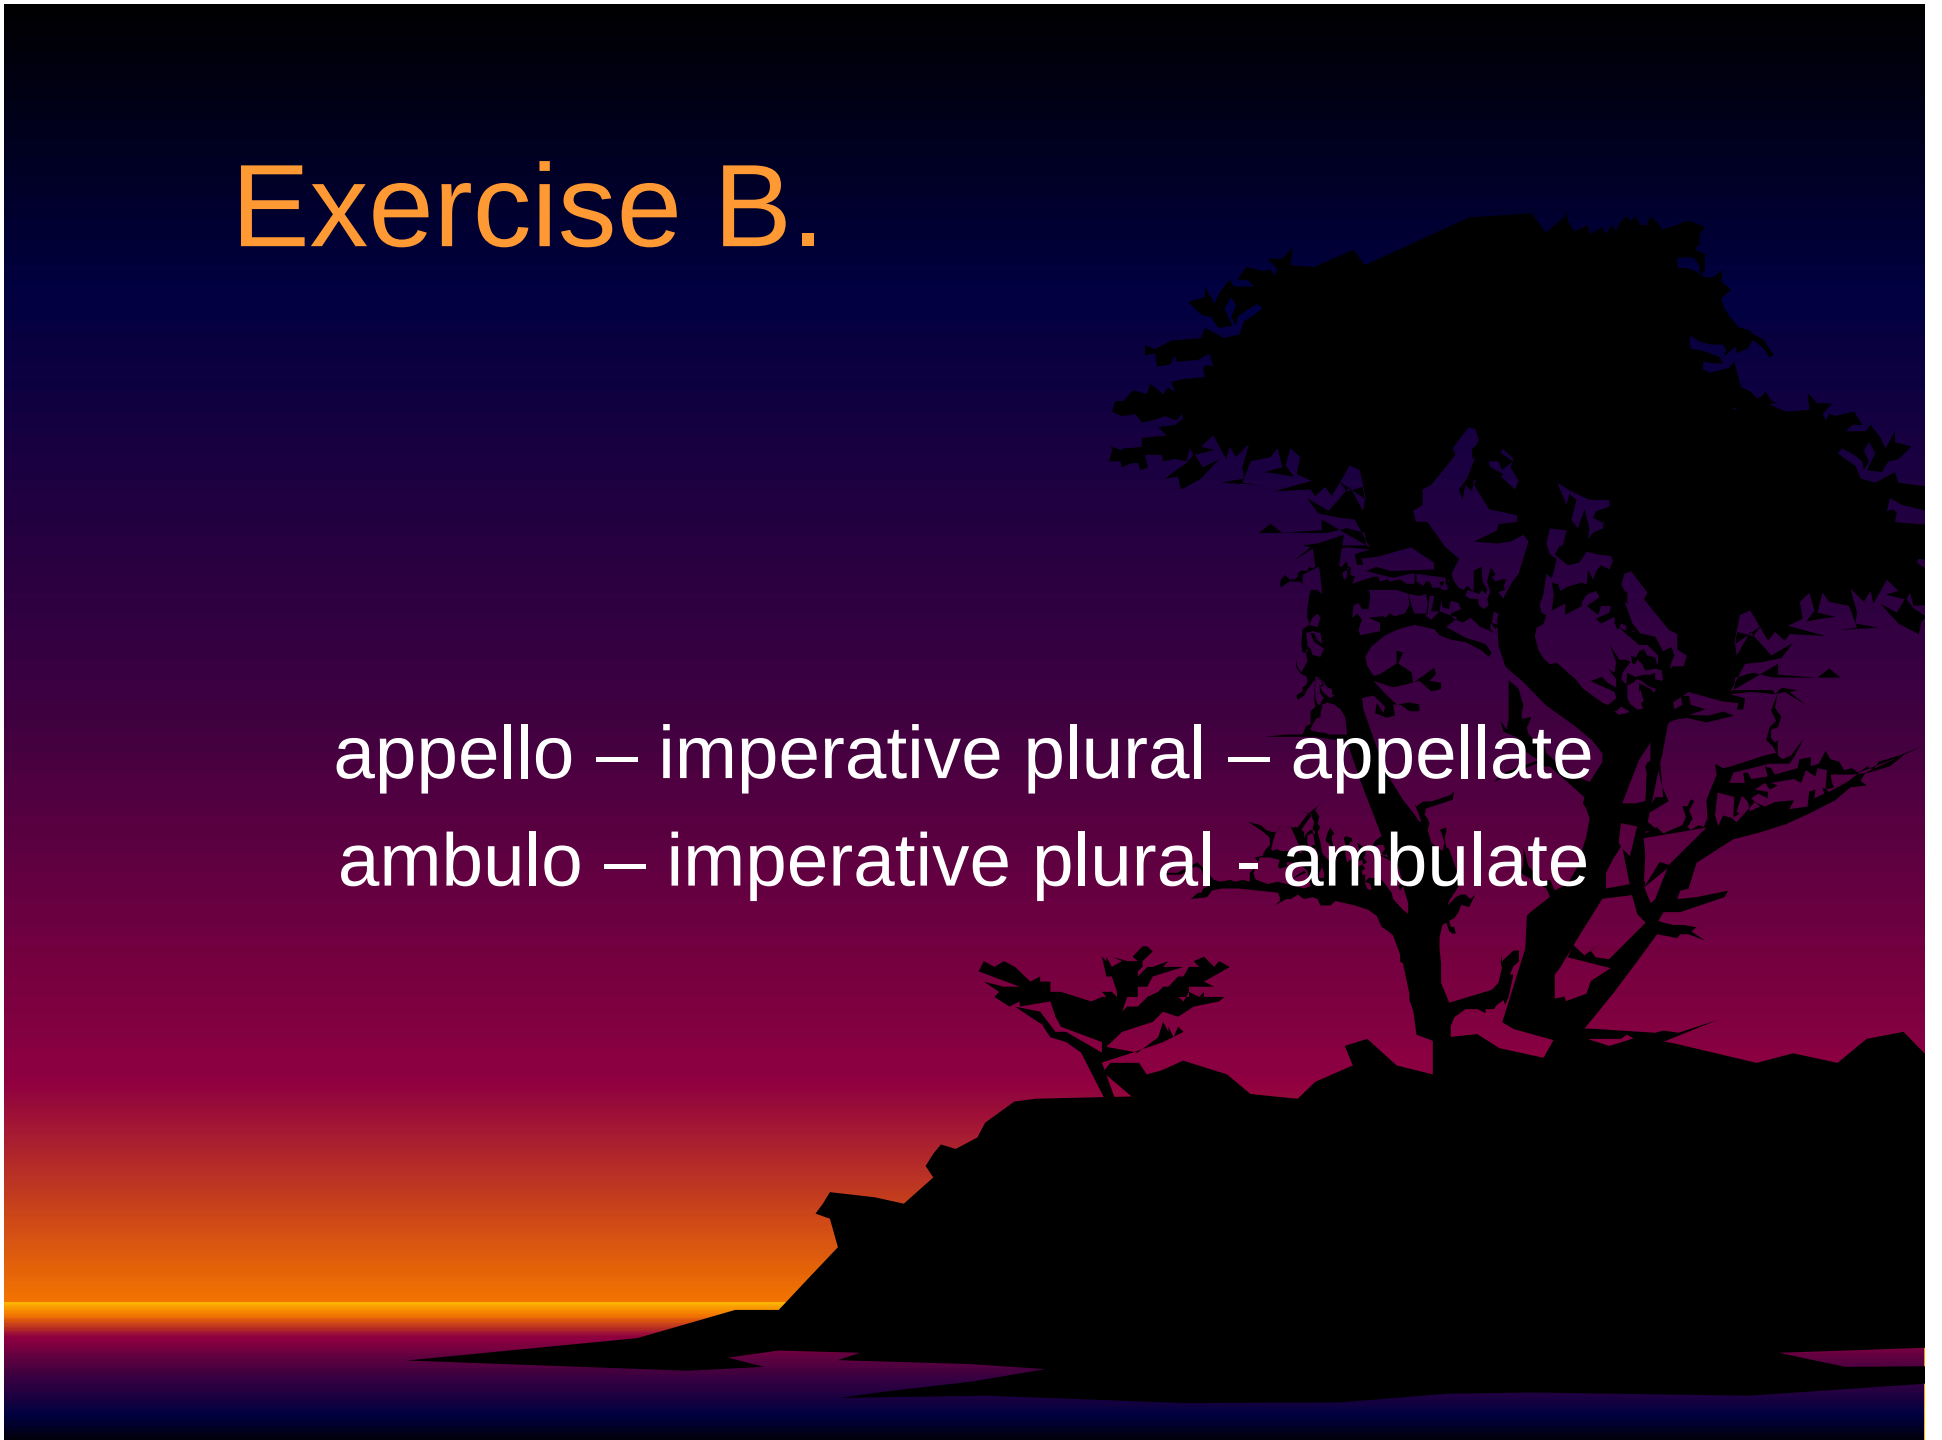

Exercise A.

appello – imperative singular – appella
ambulo – imperative singular – ambula

Exercise B.

appello – imperative plural – appellate ambulo – imperative plural - ambulate

Exercise C.

femina^a – vocative – femina^a puella^a – vocative – puella^a Christus^{us} – vocative – Christe^e
Petrus^{us} – vocative – Petre^e

Exercise D.

puer – vocative plural – pueri femina^a – vocative plural – femina^{ae} legatus – vocative plural – legati ancilla^a – vocative plural – ancilla^{ae}

Exercise E.

impv. voc. acc.s. dat.pl. 3/pl. pres. nom.pl.masc.

2. Da, puer, aquam viris; sunt defessi.

Boy (or “son”), give the men water; they are tired.

Exercise F.

3/s. imp.

nom.s.

dat. s.

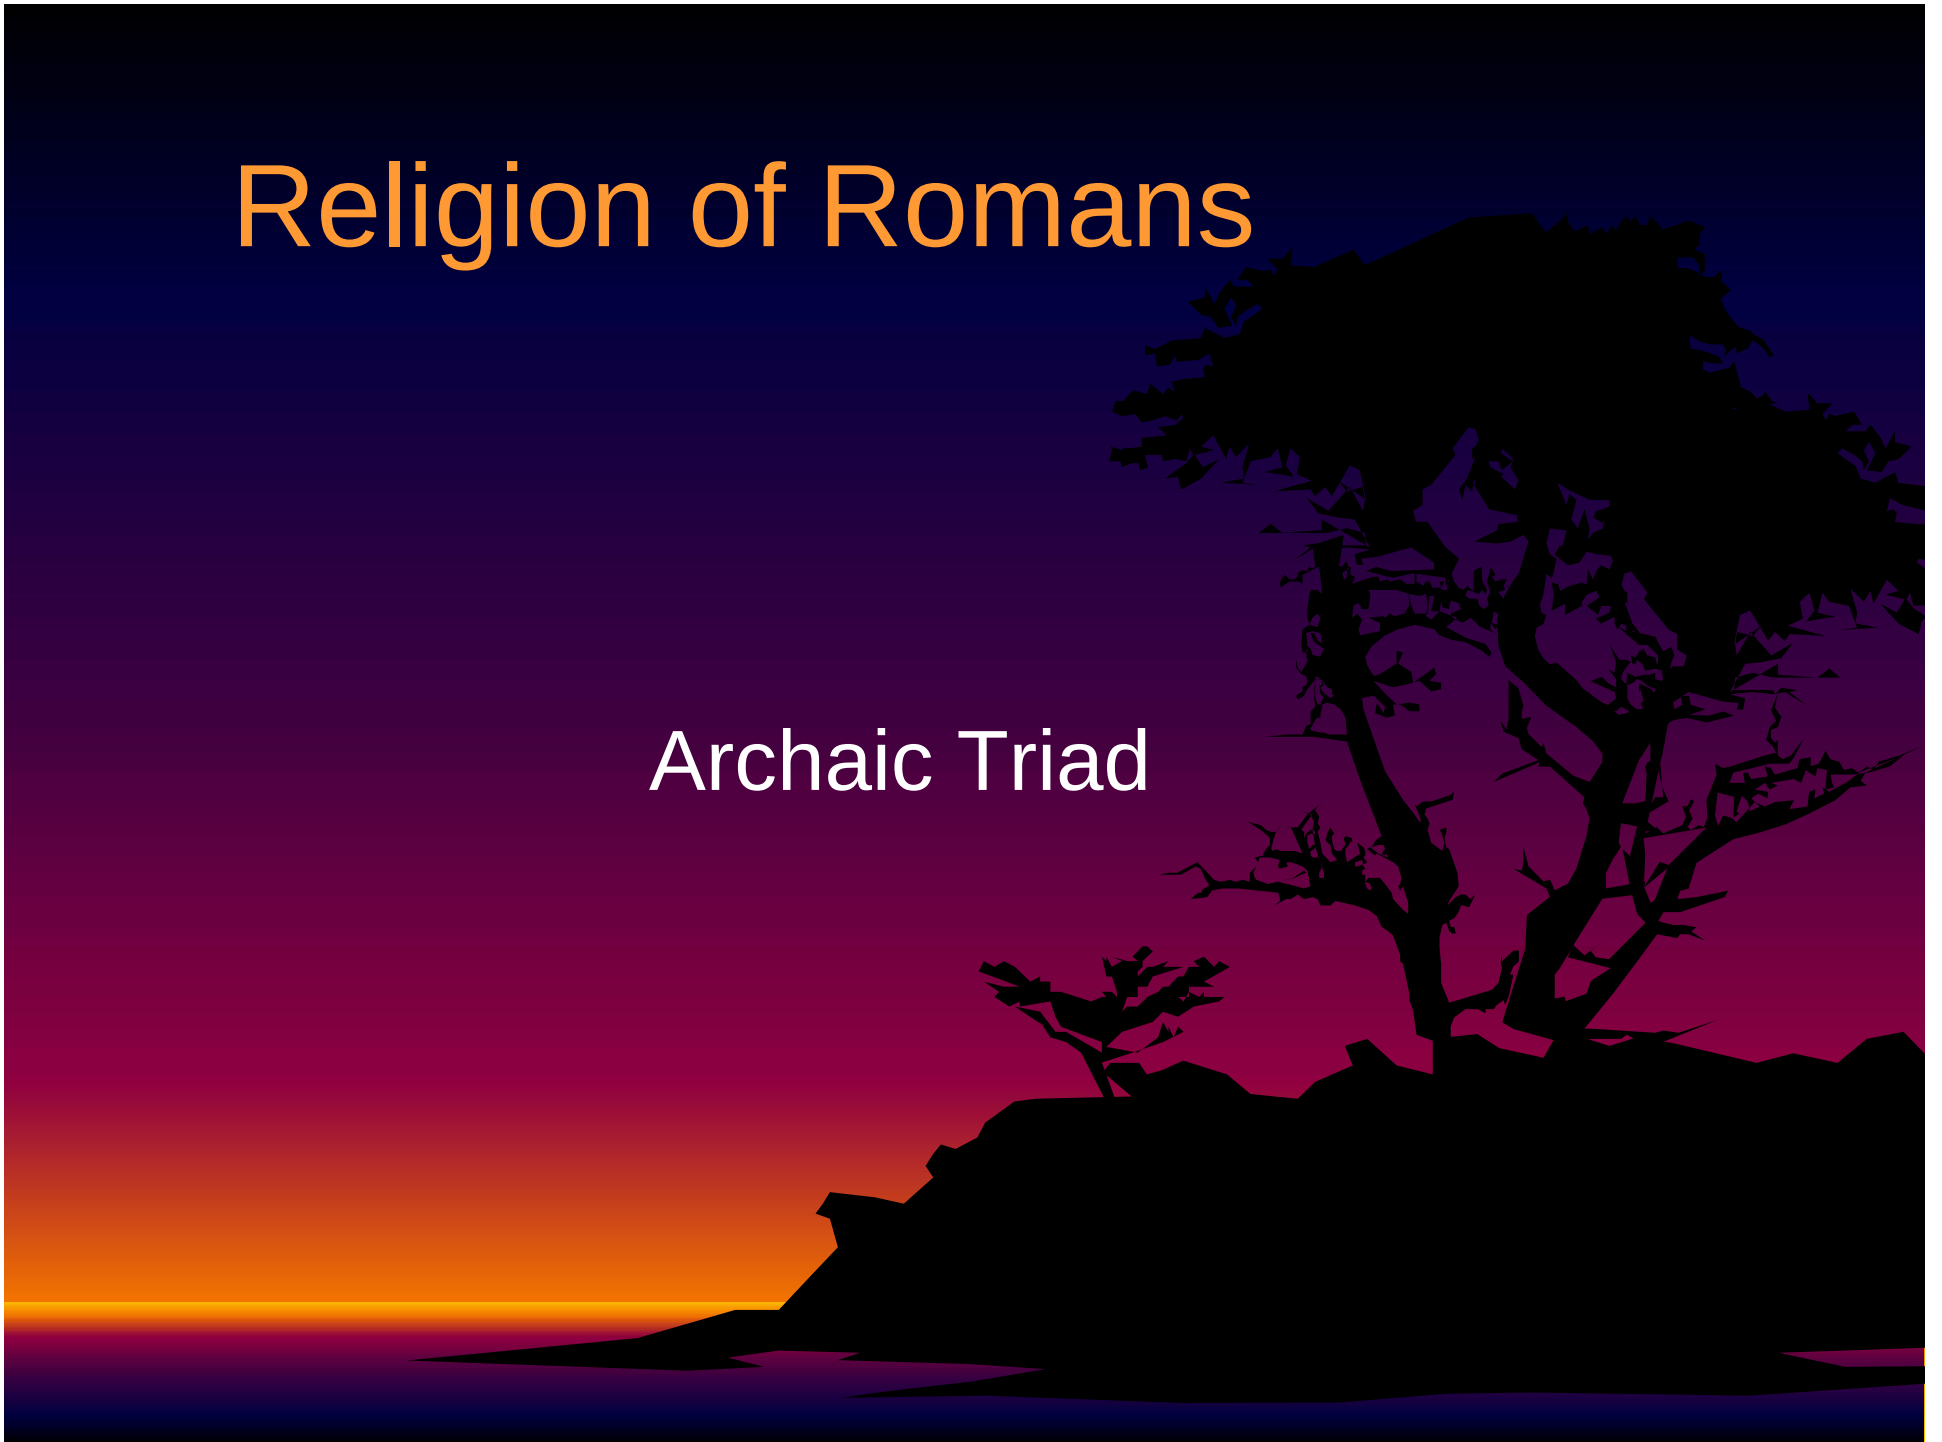

acc. duration of time

6. She was the handmaiden (to the woman) (for three years).

Erat ancilla feminae tres annos.

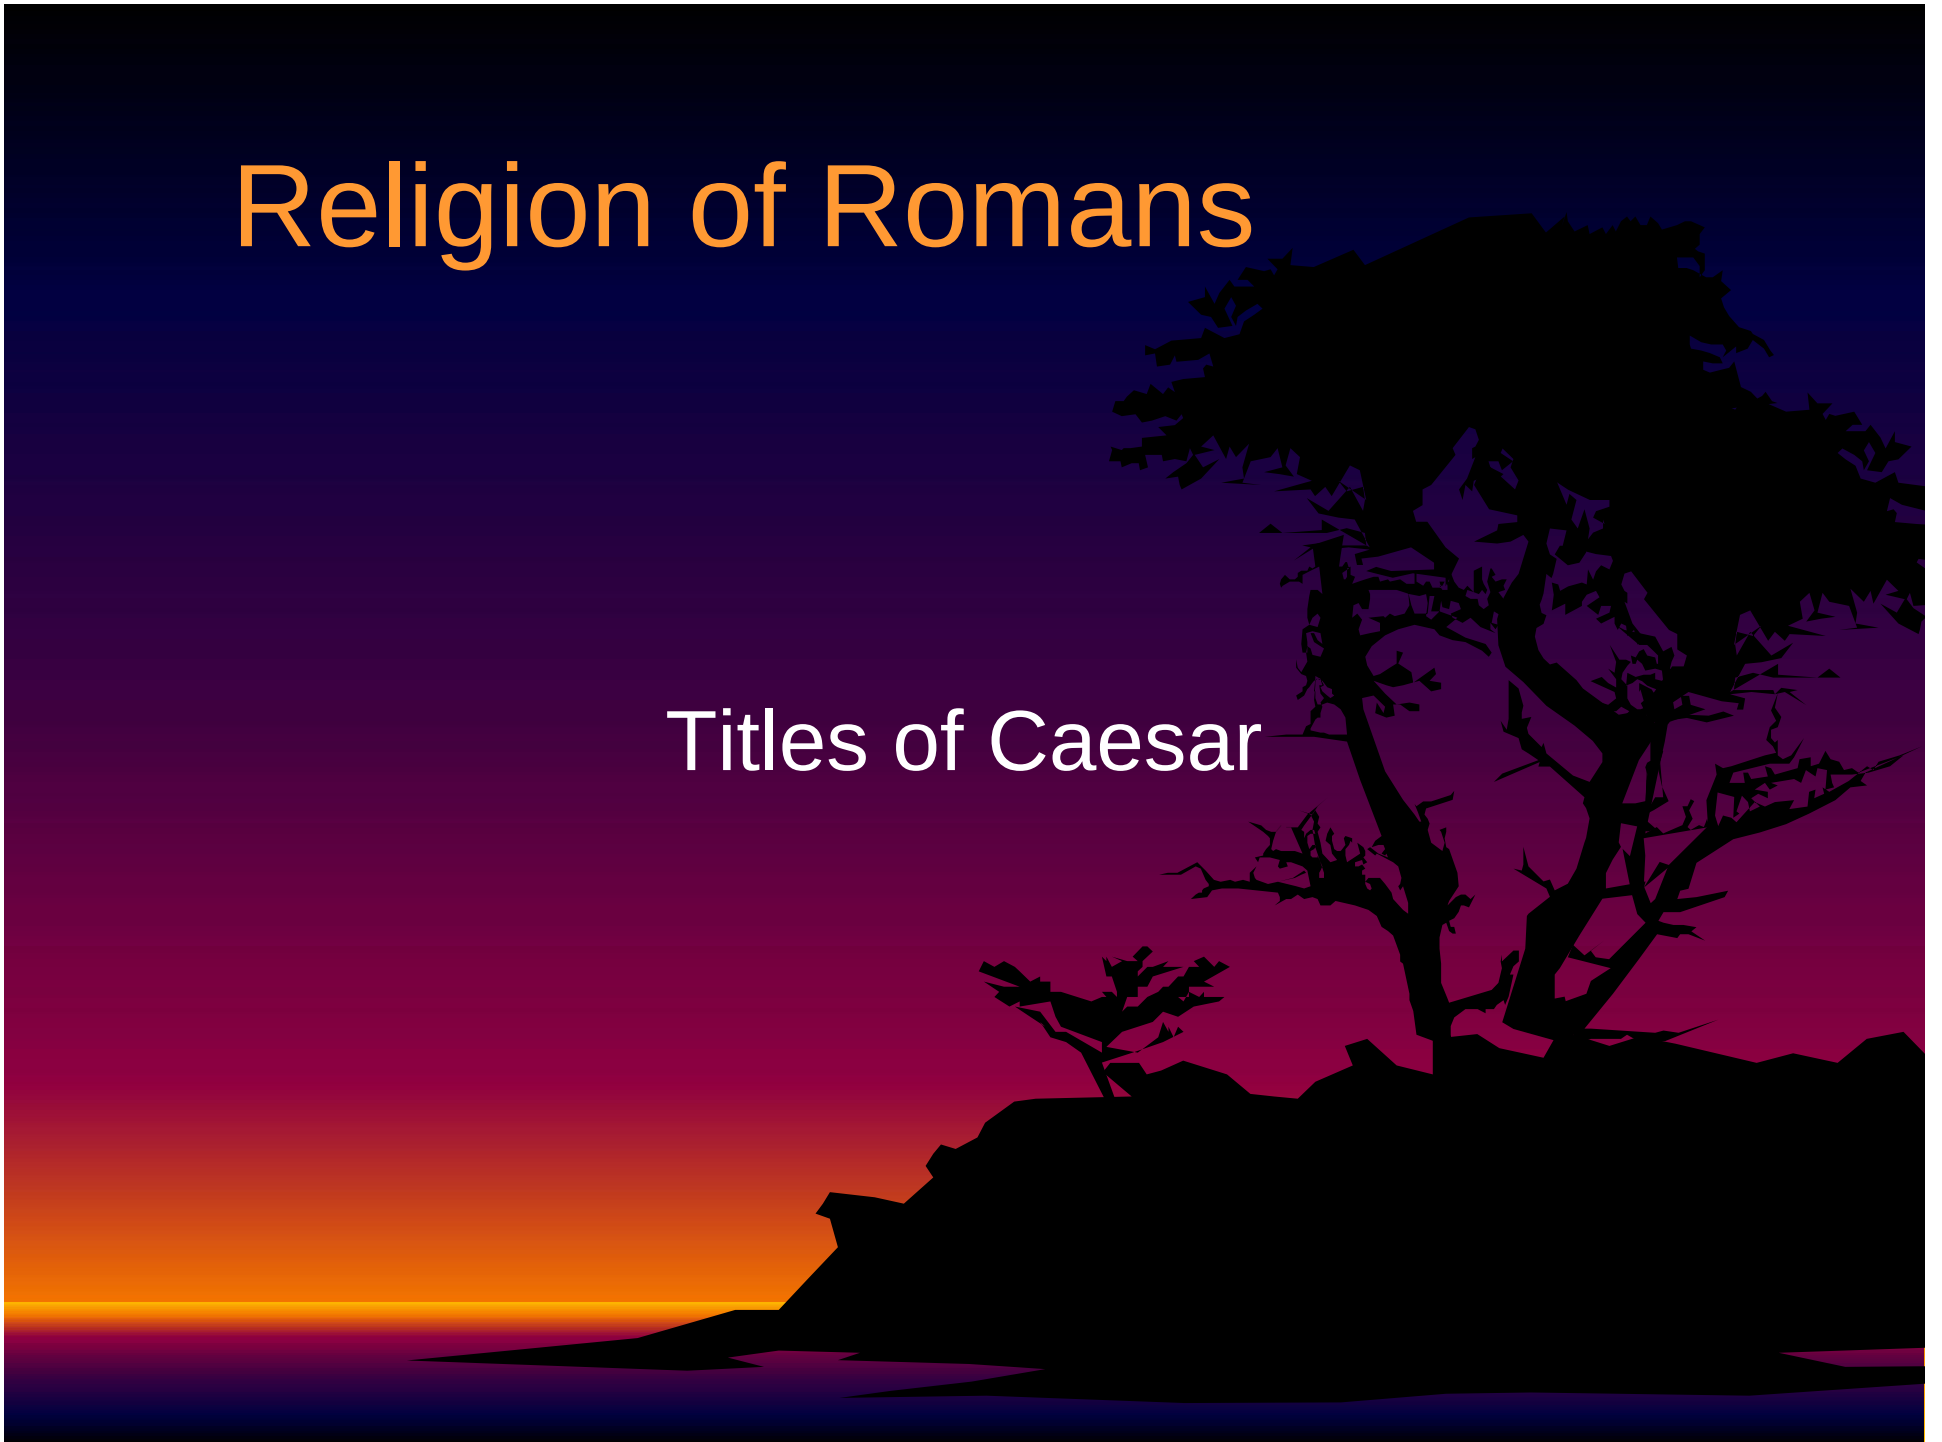

Religion of Romans

Archaic Triad

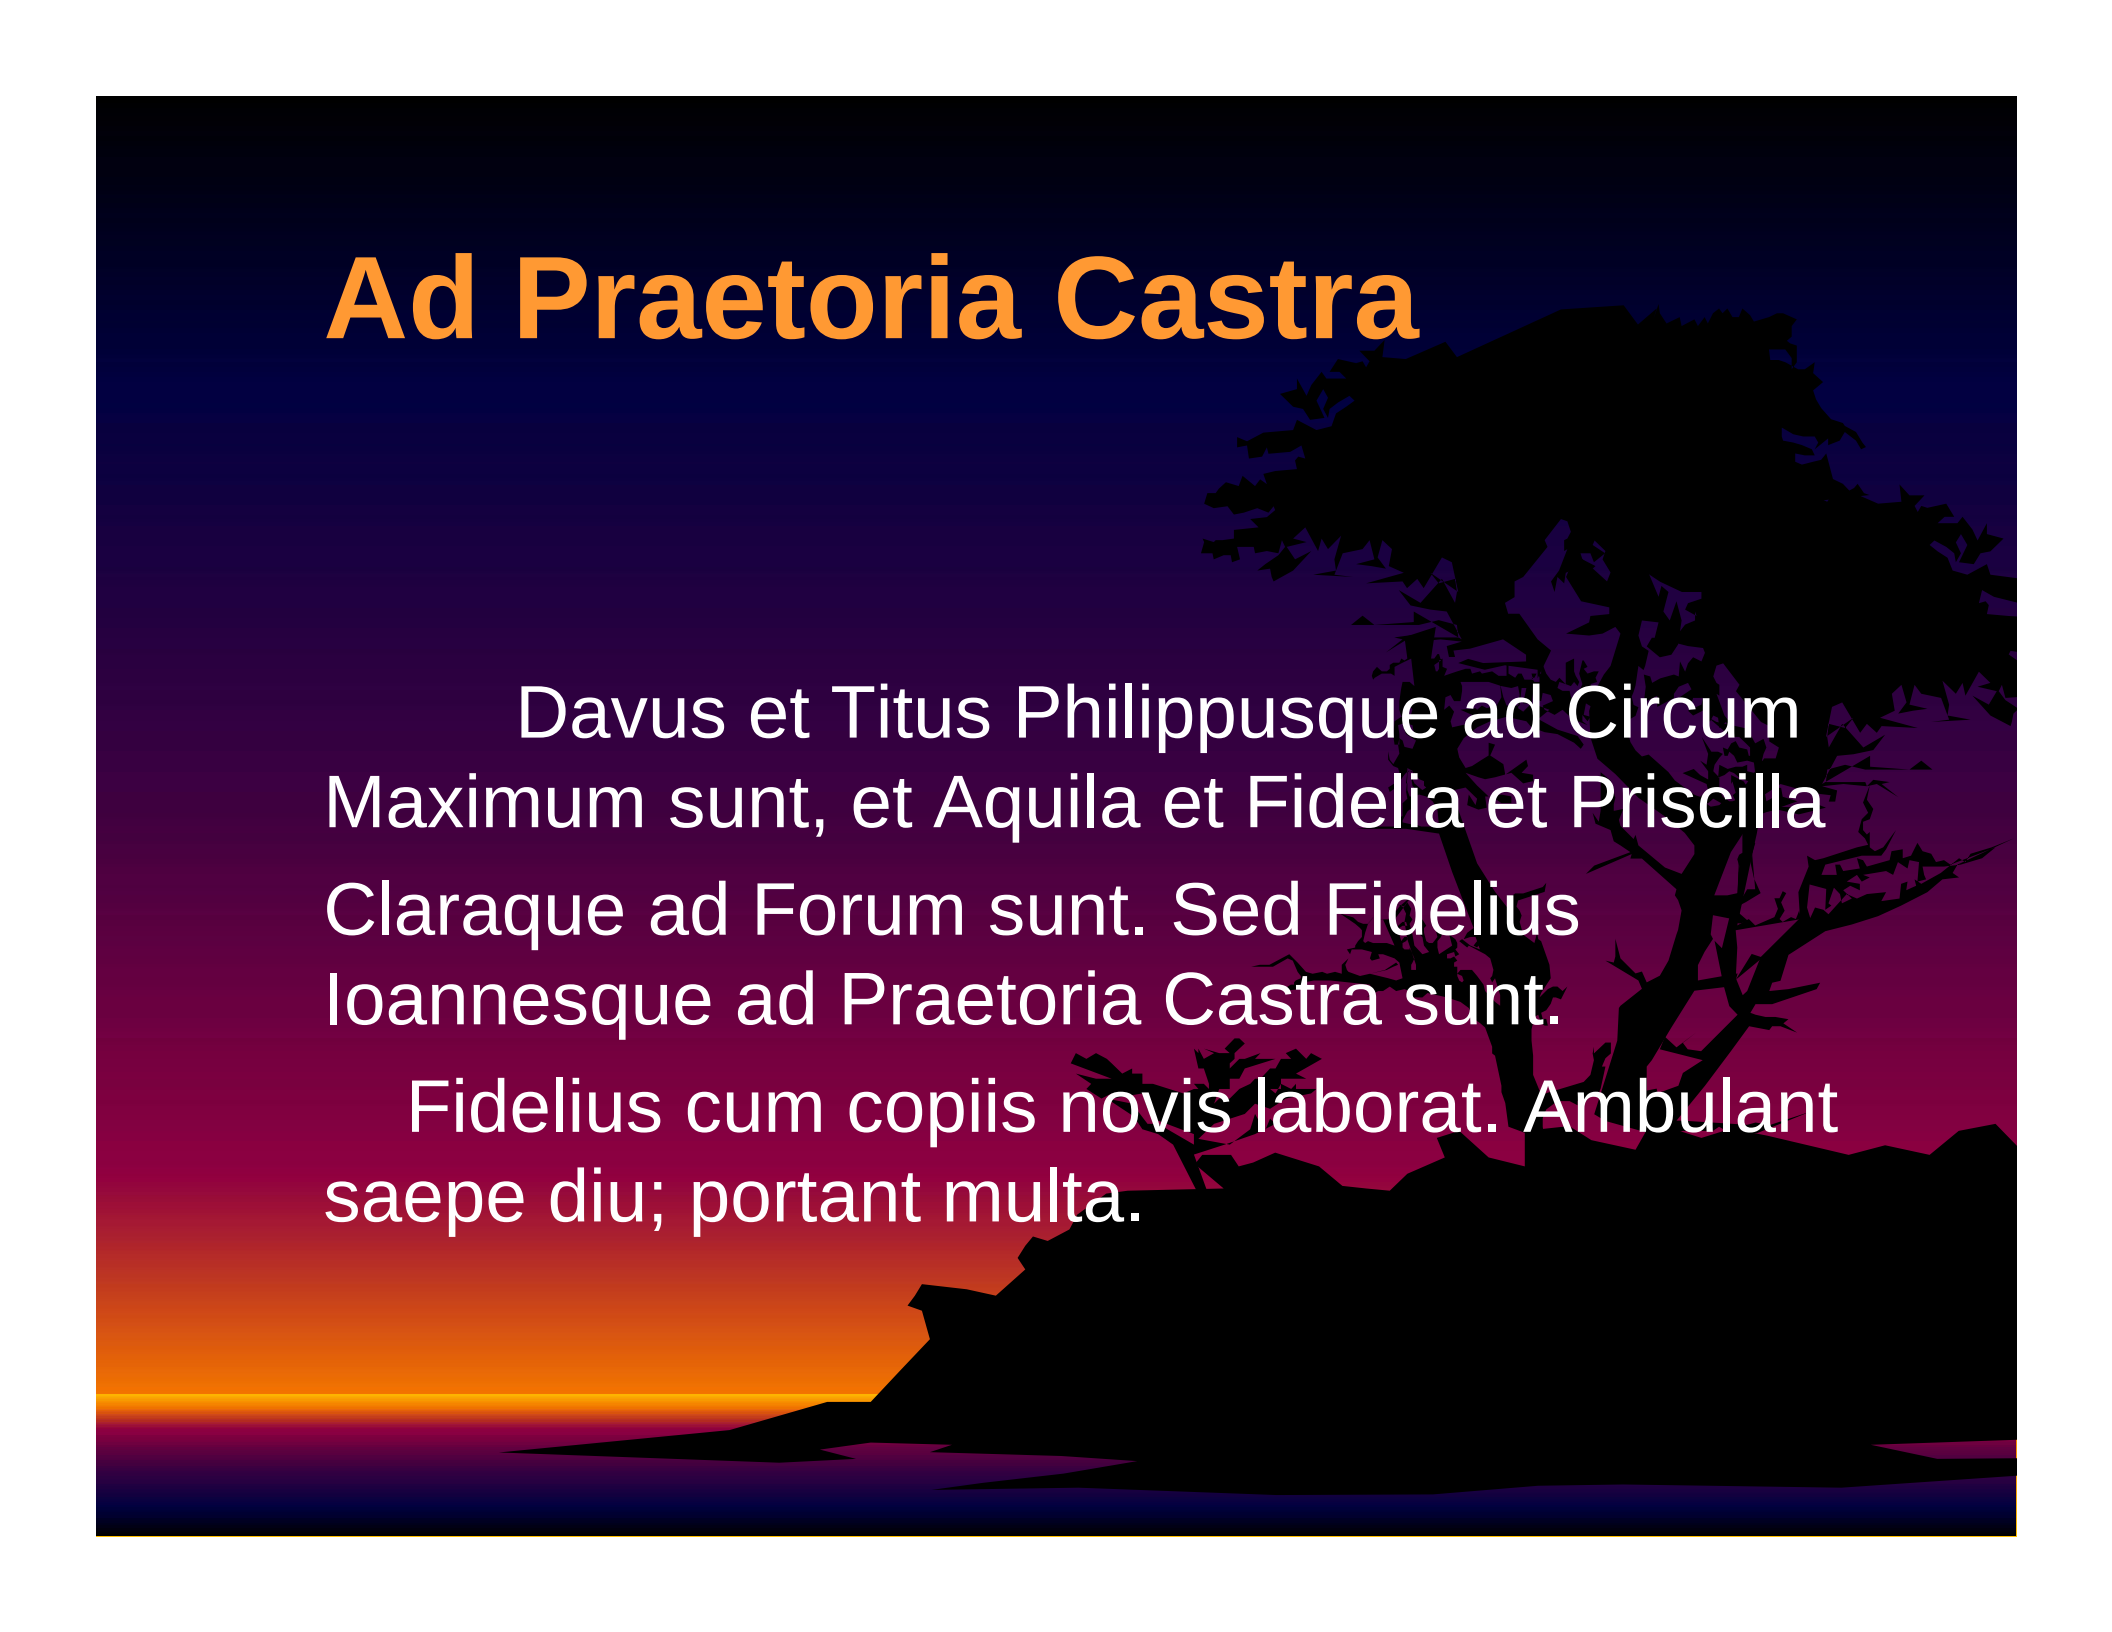

Religion of Romans

Titles of Caesar

Ad Praetoria Castra

Davus et Titus Philippusque ad Circum Maximum sunt, et Aquila et Fidelia et Priscilla Claraque ad Forum sunt. Sed Fidelius Ioannesque ad Praetoria Castra sunt.

Fidelius cum copiis novis laborat. Ambulant saepe diu; portant multa.

Ad Praetoria Castra

Ubi copiae paratae erunt, ad Iudeam navigabunt.

Romanus exercitus magna structura erat et fortissimus.

Multos populos in multis terris superabat.

Ad Praetoria Castra

Erant quadringenti et quinquaginta milia virorum inter copias Romanas trans imperium. Octo viri appellabantur contubernium. Erant decem contubernia in centuriā. Fidelius est dominus centuriae.

Ad Praetoria Castra

