

At the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier

“Come unto Me.”

Ait illis sinite,
"Parvulos venire ad me."

What does that say?

Our alphabet comes from the Egyptians and the Jews.

μ

Veni or Waynee?

Pronunciation – Church or Classical?

We use church
Latin because it is the one used in music.

Flash cards

Puella
Puellae
Feminine Girl

Subject and Predicate:

SUBJECT

Propheta, The prophet

{ Puellae, The girls

PREDICATE

est poeta, is a poet

{ ambulant, are walking

Exercise B.

“Titus and I played a game.”

“Titus and I played a game.”

Exercise B.

“Titus and I played a game.”

“Titus and I played a game.”

Inflection

“Inflected” means:

The endings change to show what word is the subject and what word is the predicate.

The Roman Family

Fidelius, Aquila, Davus, Fidelia, Titus and Priscilla.

A Map of Italy

